

WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

(8th March 2014)

It is a global day celebrating the economic, political and social achievements of women in the past, present and future. International Women's Day has gained prominence and has been observed since 1900's - A time of great expansion and turbulence in the industrialized world that saw booming population growth and rise of radical ideologies. The new millennium has witnessed a significant change and attitudinal shift in both women and societal thoughts about their equality. Women have transformed themselves as astronauts and prime ministers, entrepreneurs in the past decade. However, to make a difference, think globally and act locally!! Make everyday International Women's Day so as to ensure that the futures of girl children and women are bright, equal, safe and rewarding.

Successful Women

The tenacity of women in particular to held back from taking the leap if they haven't found a complete solution. For instance, running an enterprise requires constant learning and periodical implementation. Women in business need to be careful, clever, brave, conscientious and cautious. The last decade has marked a paradigm shift in finance and business, with a rising focus on alignment with wider values of consumers, shareholders and society. Today's women are poised in business leadership and familial expectations, wherein, business and its societal impacts are intertwined.

Women's Day Awards

NFED intended to promulgate women in diverse fields such as: entrepreneurs, service sectors, social work, and teachers / academicians. The awardees falling under these above mentioned categories are the ones who seeded the social sensation on empowering women and their potential through their impeccable services to the society.
